

Piano Scale Notes

Practice Worksheet · note knowledge, not performance scoring

Name: _____

Date: _____

Use the note references to check the scale name, form and direction. These questions check note knowledge, not piano technique.

1. Select the notes

Circle every note used in A harmonic minor ascending:

A B C D E F G G#

Which natural-minor note changes? _____

2. Complete the octave

Fill the two blanks to complete C major ascending:

C4 D4 _____ F4 G4 A4 B4 _____

3. Choose the classical descent

For A melodic minor descending under the classical scale-exercise convention, choose one:

A. A5-G5-F5-E5-D5-C5-B4-A4

B. A5-G#5-F#5-E5-D5-C5-B4-A4

Explain what happens to F and G: _____

My practice record

Self-reported · no microphone, MIDI or performance score

Scale / form	Hand / direction	Tempo / notes per beat	What I noticed

I marked this practice complete: _____

I would like to try again: _____

Reminder

A completion mark records your own session. It does not mean the website heard your piano or measured accuracy.

Answers

Keep this page separate while completing the worksheet

- 1 A, B, C, D, E, F, G#. G is raised to G#.
- 2 E4 and C5. The final C is an octave above the first C.
- 3 Choice A. F and G return to their natural-minor values in this classical descending exercise.

Reference and scope

PianoGrid Scales: C Major and A Minor. Scale-form rules are documented in Open Music Theory:

<https://viva.pressbooks.pub/openmusictheory/chapter/minor-scales/> . This worksheet is an original note-knowledge exercise, not a teacher-reviewed performance assessment.

PianoGrid created the text, diagrams and layout. No third-party score or source document is reproduced.